Admissions and Funding

The Eli Broad Graduate School of Management recommends applying before December 9th for full consideration. The Marketing PhD program requires a strong GMAT score in addition to a completed application and fee. International students are required to take the TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language).

All applicants to the Eli Broad Graduate School of Management Marketing PhD Program will be considered for funding through research/teaching assistantships or fellowships. These scholarships are highly competitive and are based primarily on dissertation support or academic performance. Students receiving aid will also be awarded in-state tuition and student health benefits.

Life in East Lansing

Students can enjoy living in an affordable, fun and family-friendly atmosphere with a variety of attractions here in East Lansing. The city boasts highly rated public schools as well as a number of community and recreation events. While East Lansing is part of a metropolitan area of over 500,000 people, its population of over 50,000 people provides a college town atmosphere and the benefits of a city without feeling overwhelmed. In addition, East Lansing is located less than two hours from Michigan’s shorelines to the east and west, a little more than one hour from the Metro Detroit area and from Detroit International Airport.
