February 2023 Alumni Updates

Sharing gratitude for the Spartan community

Dear alumni and friends,

In response to the violence we experienced last week on our beloved campus, we have dedicated this month's alumni newsletter to sharing with you this video message and community letter, recognizing our community's strength and the overwhelming love and support we have received.

The letter also includes some ways you can support our students and connect with the wider Spartan alumni network. Additionally, MSU is regularly updating a list of supportive resources for students, families, faculty and staff, with answers for questions you may have.

I know we will find our way through this challenging time together – remaining Spartan Strong.

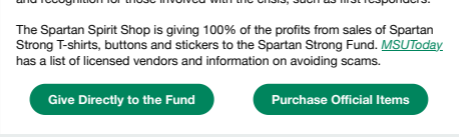

In solidarity,

Judith Whipple
Interim Dean, Broad College of Business

Support the Spartan Strong Fund...

While Michigan State University is covering hospital bills for the injured students, the Spartan Strong Fund has been created to provide support for the evolving needs of the individuals most critically impacted. The fund will also be used for student and staff counseling, campus safety enhancements and recognition for those involved with the crisis, such as first responders.

The Spartan Spirit Shop is giving 100% of the profits from sales of Spartan Strong T-shirts, buttons and stickers to the Spartan Strong Fund. MSUToday has a list of licensed vendors and information on avoiding scams.
