

Edward J. Minskoff, long-time MSU contributor and alum, will have Pavilion named for him

The $62 million collaborative learning center rising next to the Business College Complex will be called the Edward J. Minskoff Pavilion, named for the Class of 1962 economics major who became one of Manhattan's leading developers, and who has donated to his alma mater for more than 50 years.

"Many years ago, I said if I was able to achieve success in life through my business, whatever philanthropy I focused on would be in two specific areas: first and foremost is medicine ... the second is education," Minskoff said at a naming ceremony Oct. 19. "Without it, this country is going to fail."
