U.S. News Declares Supply Chain Chair #1 Again
For the fourth straight year, through a major study of the supply chain management and logistics field, U.S. News & World Report has named the Broad College of Business at Cal State Long Beach as the top ranked program in the world. U.S. News & World Report recently released its annual listing of undergraduate programs. The ranking is based on a survey of accredited business programs in the U.S. and abroad, including academic reputation, faculty resources, student selectivity, and financial resources.

Another Successful CaGEL Event
The 2013 CaGEL Seminar Series at the Broad College of Business is now underway. CaGEL is a research network across 21 major journals in economics as well as North America, for which Broad faculty and graduate students actively participate to receive top-notch research opportunities. CaGEL’s success is due to faculty and student collaboration, with high quality paper and excellent data. No capstone thesis review paper comes easy. To date, CaGEL members have submitted 21 papers to CaGEL journals, which is a remarkable achievement. CaGEL is one of the most successful seminars.
