Criteria for selection includes the following:

- The award reflects lifetime academic accomplishments, rather than simply educator of the year. The annual award is entitled The School of Hospitality Business Alumni Association Lifetime Academic Achievement Award.
- A minimum of ten years teaching and/or administrative experience in a post-secondary hospitality program.
- Must be a graduate of MSU with preference for graduates of The School of Hospitality Business (HRIM), although others could be considered.
- The recipient should be an accomplished leader with an external organization in the industry or academia (such as I-CHRIE).
- The recipient should have received some form of recognition from at least one outside organization or special recognition from their program.
- Able to attend award ceremony presentation to be made at MSU Homecoming.
