

LGBTQ+

BUILDING COMMUNITY AND FOSTERING LEADERSHIP

The Broad Full-Time MBA Program is committed to our efforts of supporting and developing the next LGBTQ+ business leaders. By connecting your personal interests, academic plans, and career goals, the program provides various resources and opportunities to foster your success.

REACHING OUT

REACHING OUT LGBTQ+ MBA (ROMBA) FELLOWSHIP

- Monetary scholarship – minimum of $10,000 per year
- Free admission for all Reaching Out events
- A fellows resume and profile book for top corporate ROMBA partners
- Assistance with job/internship placement
- Priority consideration for organizing committee leadership opportunities
- All expenses paid fellowship retreat
- Professional development workshops with top consulting companies
- Leadership/professional development
- Profiles highlighted on website and social media

INCLUSIVE RECRUITING COMPANIES

Employers with ratings of 100% on the Corporate Equality Index recruit Broad students.

MSU STUDENT ENGAGEMENT

Spartan Pride broadspartanpride.com

LGBT Resource Center lbgtrc.msu.edu

Visit lbgtrc.msu.edu/programs-and-services/student-orgs/ for a complete list of LGBTQ+ alliances, caucuses and organizations.

Have questions? Feel free to contact one of our Broad LGBTQ+ community members:

William Horton-Anderson
Assistant Director, Full-Time MBA Program
horton33@broad.msu.edu

Teagan Dixon
Fixed-Term Faculty, Accounting and Information Systems
tdixon@broad.msu.edu

Matthew Srednick
1st Year MBA Candidate – Marketing and Business Analytics srednic3@msu.edu

Learn more about Lansing area LGBTQ+ resources at <https://www.broadspartanpride.com/msu-resources>.