

MSU – The School of Hospitality Business Real Estate Investment Management Minor

The School of Hospitality Business
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

About

The Real Estate Investment Management Minor is a highly competitive option for students committed to a career in hospitality real estate development and/or investments. Enrollment is selective for this rigorous 24-credit hour curriculum and requires strong academic performance, independent coursework, interest in real estate investment, and serious commitment. With this Minor, you might consider a career with a hospitality real estate development firm, acquisition and development departments within major hospitality companies or organizations, hospitality consulting or appraisal firms, mortgage lenders specializing in hotels, real estate acquisition funds, and asset management companies. There are numerous opportunities across the country.

Admission

For admission to the REIM Minor, please schedule an appointment with our Undergraduate Academic Programs Advisor, Jeff Yingling, yingling@msu.edu. Students will complete an online application.

Real Estate Investment Club (REIC)

Established in 2008 by students with an interest to learn more about the real estate side of the hospitality industry, the Real Estate Investment Club (REIC) provides a variety of opportunities for students to engage with alumni, faculty, staff, and industry partners. The REIC prides itself in providing students with learning opportunities beyond the classroom:

- Networking with industry leaders
- Giving back to the community through volunteering
- Job shadows and internships nationwide
- Professional development programs
- Industry tours, field trips, and other travel
